GM Reminder: Team reports include reductions of fans totals, stadium and trainer levels. Minimum number of fans is 20000.

Next Deadline Is Wednesday 23rd December. I'm hoping to run on time, but between now and then we've got to move back from our temporary accommodation as the building work is finishing this week. That may mean a bit of a Christmas panic in a couple of weeks, but I'm hoping by then it'll be done and dusted. Don't be surprised if postal turns take a while reaching you.....

Games Over Christmas Thanks for all of the feedback about games over Christmas. A mixture of responses, with a few wanting a week off (in some cases apparently in a fortnight long alcoholic haze) but the vast majority are keen to carry on playing (why should a "leisure business" stop when people are at their least busy). We'll therefore run through Christmas, and see how it goes - both from your perspective, and from mine (and thanks to those who noted that it's my only break too, and I may find that I miss the time off myself - but this is really driven by what you guys want, rather than my personal preferences - though my footballing stuff will be significantly quieter throughout December, before cranking up in the New Year again).

I'll leave deadlines unchanged, and quite likely most days will run on time, but don't be too surprised if some of the games slip into the evening or to the next day (but no, I won't be running stuff on Christmas Day - the computers ARE switched off that day).

Christmas Post The ritual warning that as Christmas approaches, the post will grind to a halt. Given it already has, backwards may be the next step, so don't be surprised if the postmen start calling to return post they've already delivered!!!!

9am Deadline Can I remind everyone that orders should be here by 9am (which for postal users means the previous day's post). A few people seem to be dribbling in email orders during the morning (or afternoon) so be warned, they will miss the boat.

Gameplan Baseball The newsletter with a host of discussion points and possible developments for Gameplan Baseball is still available, and I'm keen for comments. Those of you playing by post should have had a copy, those by email can download it from www.pbmsports.com via the Rules and Newsletters link. Comments are more than welcome. There's a whole host of possibilities, and I'm not suggesting all of them will come in now, or indeed at all, but feedback on any or all is welcome.

Late Email Results If you think results are late, please make sure you wait until the following morning before chasing up results. First step is to check out the Latest News at www.pbmsports.com - if I am running late I'll post a notice there. Please don't chase me up because you know your mate got his half an hour ago, because whilst most emails are "instant", often they do get delayed for a few hours and it does take a while to send them all out (I spread them out to avoid triggering firewalls).

Equally however, if it's the next morning and you've not had results, and there's nothing on www.pbmsports.com saying I've had a problem, then please chase me up. If it hasn't shown 12 hours later, odds are it won't, and probably some firewall or spam filter somewhere has gobbled it (and they do appear to do so without pattern). I'd rather you ended up with two copies than none.

PDF Reports Emailed game reports are available for all games here. The standard format is a PDF file - Adobe Reader is free to download (see www.pbmsports.com for a link) and you can open your reports with one click of the mouse and you can either view them on screen, or print them as you wish. You don't need to worry about formatting or printer drivers. The text format for reports is available but I only expect people will want to do so if they use the text file for other purposes (such as exporting the listings into software produced yourself). If you've not tried email reports before, try them out - it really is very easy.
