Postal Update Not really much news since last time. I've sent letters of complaint to Bromley Sorting Office (no acknowledgement), the regional PO Box people (no acknowledgement) and the online complaint people (a customer service advisor responded telling me they try and deal with all complaints within five working days - took them ten days to send me the acknowledgement, and I've heard nothing in the ten days since). And they wonder why the post is going down the pan.....

Alternative Address My advice about addresses remains the same. Until further notice, I'd recommend that rather than addressing orders to my PO Box, you use my "direct address" for orders, which is as follows:-

Danny McConnell, 49 Westpoint, Shortlands Grove, Bromley, Kent, BR2 0ND

If you use the PO Box address, don't worry. That'll still get delivered as I'm not going to cancel it any time soon (one of the reasons to use a PO Box is that if I move, I can leave the address for you guys unchanged).

Deadlines and Processing Thanks for all the feedback on processing, pretty much all of which was positive, noting that the main thing is everyone knows what their "last deadline" is (it's human nature for most people to wait until the last moment, and as long as you know what it is, you can plan accordingly) but also that earlier processing would mean results in the post earlier (true) and more likely to get back to postal players quickly, and also that it'd mean less stress for me (which I hadn't considered, but is also true). One thing postal players should be reassured about - I've no intention of "abandoning" the postal option, it's simply a case of you being clear when orders have to be here by, and maybe that means posting a day earlier.

I'll ponder that over the next few weeks, and further feedback is welcome. During the summer my work time is actually more flexible - I'm in most evenings, so if the post is late (late that is, not absent) I can catch up, though it means results are slower going out. However, once we hit September, I'm out from late afternoon quite a few days of the week (football stuff, which increasingly helps to pay the bills, so late might mean the next day). Combining that, and the fact that starting at 9am would mean most results being in the post/ether by lunchtime is likely to be pretty persuasive. Watch this space.....

Late Email Results If you think results are late, please make sure you wait until the following morning before chasing up results. First step is to check out the Latest News at www.pbmsports.com - if I am running late I'll post a notice there. Please don't chase me up because you know your mate got his half an hour ago, because whilst most emails are "instant", often they do get delayed for a few hours and it does take a while to send them all out (I spread them out to avoid triggering firewalls).

Equally however, if it's the next morning and you've not had results, and there's nothing on www.pbmsports.com saying I've had a problem, then please chase me up. If it hasn't shown 12 hours later, odds are it won't, and probably some firewall or spam filter somewhere has gobbled it (and they do appear to do so without pattern). I'd rather you ended up with two copies than none.

PDF Reports Emailed game reports are available for all games here. The standard format is a PDF file - Adobe Reader is free to download (see www.pbmsports.com for a link) and you can open your reports with one click of the mouse and you can either view them on screen, or print them as you wish. You don't need to worry about formatting or printer drivers. The text format for reports is available but I only expect people will want to do so if they use the text file for other purposes (such as exporting the listings into software produced yourself). If you've not tried email reports before, try them out - it really is very easy.
