Wednesday 3rd October At time of typing, the postal strike is meant to kick off at midday tomorrow (4th October), which means that with luck postal players results will be with them before the walkout. How you'll be affected getting orders back to me depends on what the service is like once they return to work on Wednesday 10th October, and whether further strikes are scheduled. Suffice to say, if you can get to an Internet Cafe or somesuch to submit them over the Internet I'd strongly advise you do so. The fax machine is on to take orders, but as detailed below and warned the Internet is really the best option. PLEASE don't "hope the post will be OK" and then be upset when orders or results don't get through - this will be a nightmare I'm sure.

I appreciate how much of a pain this is. It's a pain for you guys, and it's a pain for me, not least if it spoils your enjoyment of the game. Please bear with it, and if you can find alternative methods of sending and receiving results, please do so.

Postal Strikes 48 hour strikes are threatened/promised from midday Thursday 4th October and 3am Monday 8th October (which effectively means a five day walkout). If they go ahead, they'll obviously have a major impact on us, but it is my intention to keep running games, so if you've not yet experimented with the internet (for sending orders and/or receiving results) now is the time. You don't have to have a computer of your own, a library, internet cafe or mate's computer will be fine.

Late Email Results If you think results are late, please make sure you wait until the following morning before chasing up results. First step is to check out the Latest News at www.pbmsports.com - if I am running late I'll post a notice there. Please don't chase me up because you know your mate got his half an hour ago, because whilst most emails are "instant", often they do get delayed for a few hours and it does take a while to send them all out (I spread them out to avoid triggering firewalls).

Equally however, if it's the next morning and you've not had results, and there's nothing on www.pbmsports.com saying I've had a problem, then please chase me up. If it hasn't shown 12 hours later, odds are it won't, and probably some firewall or spam filter somewhere has gobbled it (and they do appear to do so without pattern). I'd rather you ended up with two copies than none.

PDF Reports Emailed game reports are available for all games here. The standard format is a PDF file - Adobe Reader is free to download (see www.pbmsports.com for a link) and you can open your reports with one click of the mouse and you can either view them on screen, or print them as you wish. You don't need to worry about formatting or printer drivers. The text format for reports is available but I only expect people will want to do so if they use the text file for other purposes (such as exporting the listings into software produced yourself). If you've not tried email reports before, try them out - it really is very easy.
