GM: Danny McConnell Version: 4.2 (2005 Rules) Deadline: Wednesday 31st October

Messages

Postal Strikes At time of writing, remain up in the air, though this week's strikes have been cancelled, so I'm running turns normally. As far as the future is concerned, the postal union Executive have negiotiated a deal, but whether the postal union and/or their members accept it is another question. Don't go assuming this is all over, so keep an eye on the news.

Suffice to say, if you can get to an Internet Cafe or somesuch to submit them over the Internet I'd strongly advise you do so. The fax machine is on to take orders, but as detailed below and warned the Internet is really the best option. PLEASE don't "hope the post will be OK" and then be upset when orders or results don't get through - this will be a nightmare I'm sure.

I appreciate how much of a pain this is. It's a pain for you guys, and it's a pain for me, not least if it spoils your enjoyment of the game. Please bear with it, and if you can find alternative methods of sending and receiving results, please do so.

NFL at Wembley A group of Gameplanners and Gridstatters will be getting together before the Wembley NFL game on 28th October. All are welcome, the venue is The Green Man (Dagmar Avenue, less than 5 minutes walk from Wembley) from midday onwards. More details can be found at http://forum.gameplan.org.uk/viewtopic.php?f=7&t=285&p=2185£p2185

The contact on the day is Alan Milnes (07955 132 203). I can't promise I'll get along myself, but I will try, though if I do manage to do so, it'll be closer to kickoff time, and I should be in a Zach Thomas shirt (like that'll be unique!). Unless by then I've made the Dolphins roster (which let's face it, can't be counted out the way the season is going.....)

Late Email Results If you think results are late, please make sure you wait until the following morning before chasing up results. First step is to check out the Latest News at www.pbmsports.com - if I am running late I'll post a notice there. Please don't chase me up because you know your mate got his half an hour ago, because whilst most emails are "instant", often they do get delayed for a few hours and it does take a while to send them all out (I spread them out to avoid triggering firewalls).

Equally however, if it's the next morning and you've not had results, and there's nothing on www.pbmsports.com saying I've had a problem, then please chase me up. If it hasn't shown 12 hours later, odds are it won't, and probably some firewall or spam filter somewhere has gobbled it (and they do appear to do so without pattern). I'd rather you ended up with two copies than none.

PDF Reports Emailed game reports are available for all games here. The standard format is a PDF file - Adobe Reader is free to download (see www.pbmsports.com for a link) and you can open your reports with one click of the mouse and you can either view them on screen, or print them as you wish. You don't need to worry about formatting or printer drivers. The text format for reports is available but I only expect people will want to do so if they use the text file for other purposes (such as exporting the listings into software produced yourself). If you've not tried email reports before, try them out - it really is very easy.
